

The Creative Use of Technology in Education Award (CUTE) 2015 Recipients:

Digital Photography – “An Angel’s Shoes”, Grace Carey and Josh Myers of Bathurst High School

Animation – “Patterns”, Kindergarten class of Gretna Green Elementary School

21st Century Learning – Elementary - “Our Resources, Ourselves”, grade four students of Elsipogtog, Esgenoopetitj, Metepenagiag and Natoaganeg First Nation Schools

Photo Essay – “Jessa the Jumping June Bug” – Amelia Underhill, Tanisha Hallihan, MacKenzie Jardine, and Madison Gillespie of Blackville School

Digital Video – “Let Them Go”, Shiann Holmes, Shayla Mutch and the students and staff of North and South Esk Elementary School

21st Century Learning – Middle – “History Pin Project”, Mr. Keating and Mr. Bosma, 2013 and 2014 Social Studies Classes of Nelson Rural School

Digital Audio – “Hello Hello”, Austin Duplessie of Miramichi Valley High School

Video Documentation – “JMH Announcements” by Brenden Bills, Luke Durham, Christian Craig and Sam McIntyre of James M. Hill High School

21st Century Learning – High School – “Am I Next?” by Stacy Hudson, Morgan Joseph, MacKenzie Wilson and BLMS Students’ Council of Bonar Law Memorial School

Teacher Websites- Angela McQuaid-Murphy of Harkins Middle School

Digital Art – “Time” by Alyssa Murray of Bonar Law memorial School

Marjorie Sinclair Commitment to 21st Century Learning Award – Ashley Hallihan of Miramichi Valley High School