

Naming our Merged Schools in Dalhousie, NB

Attention Community Members:

Dalhousie Middle School (DMS) and Dalhousie Regional High School (DRHS) will be merged into one school beginning September 2015.

In accordance with the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development Policy 409-Section 6.3 (<http://www.gnb.ca/0000/pol/e/409A.pdf>), a Naming Committee has been established.

Community members and interested persons are welcome to submit written recommendations for a school name to the Anglophone School District-North District Education Council by 4:30 PM on August 7th, 2015. Submissions must be made to Brenda Dunnett, Executive Assistant to the Superintendent and District Education Council by:

- Email (Brenda.Dunnett@gnb.ca) or
- Regular Mail: 78 Henderson Street
Miramichi, NB
E1N 2R7

Written submissions must include:

- Your recommendation of a school name
- A brief rationale (2-3 lines) for your choice

PLEASE NOTE: All names submitted will be considered by the Naming Committee and three recommendations will be made to the District Education Council. These recommendations will be submitted to the Honorable Serge Rousselle, Minister of Education and Early Childhood Development, for his consideration and final selection.

Thank you for your participation and we look forward to your submissions!
